DHL COMMITS TO PHARMX ORDERING GATEWAY

PharmX Pty Limited and DHL Exel Supply Chain are pleased to announce the signing of an agreement for DHL to access and utilise the PharmX ordering gateway.

Tony Allan, the General Manager of DHL Pharmacy Supply said today:

“The PharmX ordering gateway provides the industry with a new level of efficiency and choice. In a time of many changes and challenges, the industry needs the PharmX gateway to make ordering, supplying and invoicing easier and more efficient for pharmacists. We are pleased to be working with PharmX to deliver cost savings to our business and to pharmacists”.

Graham Cunningham, Chairman of PharmX commented:

“We are extremely pleased to have reached agreement with DHL. As a major international company they understand the importance of supply chain efficiency. It is an accolade to PharmX that they have chosen us as the important ordering and supply link between supplier and pharmacist

PharmX is a joint venture group owned by Mountaintop Systems, Simple Retail, Corum and PCA NU Systems. The ordering gateway is a common software system created to facilitate electronic ordering for pharmacists and their suppliers.
